MASTER OF ARTS FASHION DESIGN

The Master of Arts in Fashion Design program teaches students through a dynamic and forward-thinking educational way, blending innovation, sustainability, and industry expertise. This comprehensive program equips aspiring designers with the necessary skills, knowledge, and creative vision to thrive in the ever-evolving landscape of the fashion industry. Through a carefully curated curriculum, students explore various topics, from innovative pattern cutting and advanced portfolio design to entrepreneurship in fashion and the future of sustainable fashion. Emphasizing hands-on learning and real-world applications, students engage in industry projects and luxury fashion collaborations, gaining invaluable insights into the workings of the global fashion market. With a focus on creativity, craftsmanship, and critical thinking, graduates emerge as versatile and visionary designers prepared to make meaningful contributions to the fashion world.
